Guinness House Tutor

After having graduated from Royal Holloway, University of London, with a BSc (Hons) in Geography, I went on to complete my PGCE at St Mary's University College in Twickenham. I always knew that I wanted to go into teaching because of my own passion for learning about the wider world and visiting places both at home and abroad.

LVS Ascot is my first full time teaching job, where I am eager to experience both the challenges and the rewards that lie ahead of me. I am looking forward to experiencing life within a boarding house as this will be my first time.

In my spare time, I enjoy the outdoors, especially camping and mountaineering. This started after having completed my Duke of Edinburgh's Award, something that I cannot wait to pursue at LVS. I enjoy listening to music and reading around my subject interests. I love going to the cinema, watching DVDs and going to music concerts. I like watching all sorts of programmes on television, especially Top Gear, Hollyoaks and the Simpsons!
